Ireland - Quest for the Throne
July 20 - 29, 2019

ITINERARY

Saturday, July 20: Depart for Ireland
Motorcoach from Central PA to Newark International Airport for your overnight flight into Dublin, Ireland.

Sunday, July 21: Dublin
WELCOME TO IRELAND! Get started with your Ireland adventure by starting with a visit to Trim Castle, the largest, best-preserved and most impressive Anglo-Norman Castle in Ireland. Next, take a guided tour to learn about the previous residents and some more recent visitors, including Mel Gibson and the cast from “Braveheart” as the castle and grounds were featured in the movie. Drive a short distance to your hotel, check-in and settle into your room. In the evening, join your fellow travelers for a welcome get-together drink followed by a step back into time and experience the Trim Living History Medieval Weapons Demo. You will feel like you are living in the fantasy world of movies and television. You will get the opportunity to hold a heavy sword, try on a closed helmet and even wear chain mail! Afterwards, enjoy an authentic Irish dinner at the hotel restaurant with your fellow travelers.
Hotel: Radisson Blu Farnham Estate Hotel, Cavan  (Dinner)

Monday, July 22: Monasterboice
After a hearty Irish breakfast, explore Westeros from the “Game of Thrones” as you pass the beautifully remote Binevenagh Mountain – scenes from season five were filmed here at the dramatic cliff. Next, visit Monasterboice, which dates from the 5th century and is famous for its collection of Celtic high crosses which are intricately decorated. Drive to the beautiful Downhill Strand in County Londonderry. Known to “Game of Thrones” fans as Dragonstone – a memorable scene from season two has Melisandre burning statues of the old gods on the beach as offering to the god of light. Continue exploring Downhill Strand with a visit to Mussenden temple, which was modelled on a Roman temple and built in 1785. Today it is one of Ireland’s most photographed buildings with the stunning beach just below it. Drive into Portrush, check into your hotel and settle into your room. In the evening, join your fellow travelers for a traditional Irish dinner at the hotel restaurant. Hotel: Atlantic Hotel, Portrush  (Breakfast, Dinner)

Tuesday, July 23: Dunluce Castle
After a wholesome Irish breakfast, drive just outside of Portrush and stop to visit Dunluce Castle. This splendid structure sits on basalt rock jutting out over the sea, reached by a wooden walkway. During the 16th century it was home to the McQuillan’s, and later the MacDonnells. Continue your journey and stop to visit the Giant’s Causeway, an impressive area of hexagonal columns formed over 60 million years ago by cooling lava which has given to many legends. Then stop en route to visit the Carrick-a-Rede rope bridge, which spans a chasm of some eighty feet deep. This swinging rope is not for the faint-hearted, but the coastal views are wonderful, even without crossing the bridge. Return to your hotel and relax or freshen up before dinner in the hotel restaurant.  (Breakfast, Dinner)

Wednesday, July 24: “Nine Glens of Antrim”
Today, drive along the coast to experience one of Ireland’s popular scenic routes. Here, you’ll see the “Nine Glens of Antrim” which offer wonderful views of mountains, valleys and coastline. Continue on to see the beautiful Dark Hedges, a breathtaking line of beech trees planted in the 18th century. This location was also featured in “Game of Thrones”. Next, visit the breathtaking Cushendun Caves, which was established over four million years ago due to severe weather conditions. It serves as a shooting location for the haunting scene in season two of “Game of Thrones” when Melisandre gave birth to the shadow assassin. As you continue, your travels stop to view Cairncastle, an open area of many hills and remote beauty. This area was used for filming season one, episode one, when Ned Stark executes a deserter who fled the Night’s Watch. Later in seasons four and five this area was used for exterior shots of Moat Caitlin. Continue your journey to the Shillanovogy Valley which sits under the Slemish Mountain and enjoy a close up look at the area filmed as the Dothraki grasslands. Drive through Ireland’s rolling hills and into the beautiful city of Belfast where you will check into your hotel and have a traditional Irish dinner. Hotel: Europa Hotel, Belfast  (Breakfast, Dinner)

Thursday, July 25: Belfast Guided Tour
This morning, embark on a guided tour of Belfast to see the Albert Museum, the Opera House and Crown Liquor Saloon. In Donegall Square view the imposing City Hall, completed in 1906. The richly decorated interior contains stained glass portraying Belfast’s principal industries. Stop to visit Crumlin Road Gaol to explore over 150 years imprisoned during “the Troubles,” many of which still live in Belfast to this day. In Antrim visit the ruins of Shane’s Castle, the family seat of the O’Neill’s of Clandeboye. Built in 1345, it was originally called Eden-duff-carrick. Shane MacBrien O’Neill changed the name to Shane’s Castle in 1722. The striking remains are situated on lovely grounds with a variety of flora, fauna and birds. Return to your hotel with time to relax before enjoying dinner at the hotel.  (Breakfast, Dinner)
Friday, July 26: Inch Abbey
Today we’ll journey along and stop to visit Inch Abbey, a 12th century massive monastic ruin site on the bank of the River Quoile. Most recently the site has been used as a filming location for the “Game of Thrones”. Next, visit Tollymore Forest Park, which was established in 1955 and was the first state park in the northern part of Ireland. Then travel to Downpatrick and stop to visit Winterfell Castle Ward. Your guide will show you several locations on the property where “Game of Thrones” is filmed along with shared storied from the sets and other backstage tidbits. Continue your drive into Nescastle and check into your hotel. Hotel: Slieve Donard Hotel, Newcastle (Breakfast, Dinner)

Saturday, July 27: Dublin Guided Tour
This morning, drive through Ireland’s green pastures, passing through many market towns and into the metropolitan area of Dublin. Then, set off with a local guide who will show you around Dublin. The city has been molded through the centuries with many architectural styles, reflecting the economic, political and artistic influences. Stop at Trinity College to see the Book of Kells, an 8th century illuminated manuscript of the gospels and see the Old Library. Drive a short distance to your hotel and relax or freshen up before a festive evening. This evening join the festivities at The Irish House Party with Irish musicians and dancers in an intimate setting. Hotel: Camden Court Hotel, Dublin (Breakfast, Dinner)

Sunday, July 28: Dublin day on your own
Enjoy the day at leisure in Dublin, where you can choose from a wide variety of pursuits. Use your Hop on – Hop off pass to visit a number of places. Also using your vouchers you may visit either Guinness Storehouse or the General Post Office. If you choose to visit the Guinness Storehouse, see exhibits on how this world famous stout was first created and also enjoy a sample of the finished product. If you decide to visit the General Post Office on O’Connell Street, learn about its role in the Easter Rising and how it was left in ruins. There are also plenty of museums and shops you may like to visit. This evening, you will have plenty of choices at one of the many restaurants or pubs for dinner on your own. (Breakfast)

Monday, July 29: Depart for home
After breakfast, transfer to the Dublin International Airport for your flight back to the U.S. with fond memories of Ireland. (Breakfast)

Hotels and itinerary are subject to change at any time without notification and/or compensation.
