CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

Boston, MA
Boston, the capital of Massachusetts, is one of the most historic cities in North America and home to too many of the USA's leading universities, including world-renowned Harvard in neighboring Cambridge. The abundance of historical sights, first-class museums and opportunities to take in a cross-section of cultural activities, music, art, theater and more explain why Boston is one of the country's most popular tourist destinations.

FUN THINGS TO DO:
• Head for Boston Common and retrace the footsteps of the ducks in the book Make Way for Ducklings or take a ride on the legendary swan boats.
• Walk Harvard Square's streets that date from 1631 to see its famous bookstores, eclectic shopping, art galleries, cultural theatres, and some of the best dining in all of Boston.
• Tour Lexington and Concord, the grounds that launched the Revolutionary War. Walk the streets of Paul Revere to see the Concord Museum, Minuteman Statue homes of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Nathanial Hawthorne and Louisa May Alcott.

Portland, ME
You'll love wandering along the cobblestone walkways and back alleys of the Old Port, browsing through galleries and other eclectic shops. Or, if you'd prefer, you can walk uphill toward the shops of Congress Street, gazing back at the islands of Casco Bay to capture some great photos to share.

FUN THINGS TO DO:
• Visit the Victoria Mansion, one of America's most significant Victorian homes, dating back to 1858. The interior is all original, with antique furniture, carpets, ceramics and wall decorations.
• Discover Kennebunkport, a truly classic Maine village. See Victorian-style mansions built by sea captains and 19th-century merchants. Stroll the same quaint streets as famous resident, former President George Bush. Visit the center of town, Dock Square, and immerse yourself in the fashionable boutiques, shops, galleries and small restaurants.
• Come see the Portland Head Light lighthouse illuminate over 200 years of history. George Washington ordered its construction in 1787. Today it is the most photographed lighthouse in North America, and deserves a snap in your photo album.

Saint John, New Brunswick
Nestled between nature parks and the powerful currents of the Bay of Fundy, Saint John is the province of New Brunswick's largest city. Your ship anchors in the Bay of Fundy, where you can watch the swirling tide crash one way – and within the hour turn completely around at the unique reversing falls. Also take in some local baked goods at the Saint John City Market.

FUN THINGS TO DO:
• Visit the historic Trinity Anglican Church, which dates from 1877, when the original structure was destroyed in the Great Fire. Shop at your leisure in the antique and specialty shops located along Prince William Street, then through the Old City Market on Germain Street.
• Visit St. Martin's Sea Caves and Beach, where you'll see caves carved out by the pounding tides, as well as the rock-covered beach. St. Martins' twin-covered bridges, harbor area and lighthouse are favorites with photographers and painters.
• Explore Fort Howe, built in 1777 to serve as both protection for the harbor and as the city jail. The building itself is now closed, but the rocky promontory on which it sits offers an excellent panoramic view of the city and harbor.
Halifax, Nova Scotia
Located on the shores of the world’s second-largest natural harbor, the “city of Trees” adds to the pastoral beauty of Canada’s maritime region. An extensive network of walking trails extends from the waterfront out to a series of beautiful parks and vibrant gardens, inviting exploration.

FUN THINGS TO DO:
• Relax on a drive through the beautiful Nova Scotian countryside to the moody, weathered village of Peggy’s Cove. Walk along the rocks to view the craggy coastline with its bold glacier-formed outcroppings of granite and its impressive lighthouse. Then drive through the softer South Shore area back to Halifax, and enjoy another view of the city.
• Take a historical and anecdote-filled tour through the streets of Halifax. Explore the hilltop fortress and the Citadel, and stroll through the beautiful Victorian-style public gardens.
• Explore the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia’s extensive collection, with over 2,000 permanent works.
• Take a leisurely 12.5 mile bike ride and explore Freeport’s sights and sounds. Ride along the shoreline through a native settlement and learn of the native local history.

Please see your Travel Agent to reserve your choice of shore excursions.

Tour Activity Level:

1
At a very leisurely pace, this tour involves minimal physical activity, such as climbing some stairs, boarding a motorcoach, and walking from the hotel reception area to hotel rooms and dining areas.
