Monday, September 8th - Albuquerque

This morning, enjoy something that Albuquerque is world famous for, a Hot Air Balloon Ride! Fulfill your bucket list with a truly one-of-a-kind experience. Experience the scenic Rio Grande and enchanting southwest vistas like never before during a one-hour balloon flight. End with a celebratory toast, some morning treats and a flight certificate. Then depart Albuquerque and travel south to the small town with a unique name, Truth or Consequences, and join the group for an included lunch. After lunch, meet your local step on guide and depart for touring of Spaceport America. Spaceport America is the first purpose built commercial spaceport in the world. The FAA-licensed launch complex, situated on 18,000 acres adjacent to the U.S. Army White Sands Missile Range in southern New Mexico, has a rocket friendly environment of 6,000 square miles of restricted airspace, low population density, a 12,000-foot runway, vertical launch complexes, and about 340 days of sunshine and low humidity. Some of the most respected companies in the commercial space industry are customers at Spaceport America: Virgin Galactic, Boeing, UP Aerospace, EXOS Aerospace, HyperSciences, and SpinLaunch. After a tour of this unique facility, return to Albuquerque with a little free time to relax. Then join the group for an experience high above the valley as you ride on the Sandia Peak Tramway for spectacular views of the Sangre De Cristo Mountains and fine dining at over 10,000 feet. An evening to remember! (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Tuesday, September 9th - Sandia Peak

This morning, experience a fascinating introduction to the way of life enjoyed by America's first "apartment dwellers," the Pueblo tribes of the Southwest. At the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center, you'll see their artifacts and crafts and learn about the cultural and religious customs that have helped preserve this society for over 1,000 years. Next travel to Acoma Pueblo* for an included lunch and touring. The Pueblo offers a window in time where Native people carry on the customary traditions of their ancestors through Native American pottery making and tribal celebrations. Enjoy a guided tour of the Sky City Cultural Center followed by a visit to Haak'u Museum to view the exhibits, stunning Pueblo pottery and Southwest Indian art created by renowned Native American artists. Return to Albuquerque with the evening free to relax, explore and have dinner on your own. (Breakfast, Lunch)

*Acoma Pueblo is subject to closure on short notice due to tribal ceremonies or events. If closed a similar experience will be substituted if a closure occurs.

Wednesday, September 10th - Turquoise Trail - Santa Fe

Today you're off to Santa Fe. The Turquoise Trail, named for the exquisite mineral that was once mined here, leads you to your first stop of the day, the real-life ghost town of Madrid. Madrid looks exactly like a ghost town should, with its rows of empty, ramshackle houses that once were the homes of three thousand miners and their families. The only sign of life now is the artists who come to paint this picturesque place, and who display their wares to the interested buyer. After time to explore this relic of the past, continue on to the first state capitol in the United States, "The Royal City of the Holy Faith of Saint Francis," better known as Santa Fe. Founded in 1609, the city offers many historic and scenic delights. Your tour will be a combination of driving and walking to the many famous sights including the historic Santa Fe Plaza with a view of the Palace of the Governors, the Loretto Chapel, a miniature model of the Sainte-Chapelle in Paris, and the oldest church in New Mexico and more. After an included lunch, there will be free time to explore the many wonderful shops and art galleries on your own. Take a chance to stroll through the Indian Market, where native arts and crafts are available directly from the artists who created them. Check into your hotel with the evening free for dinner on own. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Hotel: Courtyard by Marriott Santa Fe (or similar)

Thursday, September 11th - Taos - Santa Fe

Depart for another day of exploration as you take the High Road to Taos. Visit Chimayo, where the descendants of Spanish weavers and woodcarvers still ply their crafts. After a stop to observe the artisans, travel the picturesque high road to the world class resort town of Taos. Founded in 1617 by the Spanish, Taos has kept its Spanish and Indian influences. You will visit Taos Pueblo, a village that has been inhabited for more than 800 years, and whose adobe structures have changed little since the first Spanish explorers saw them in the 1540's. Then arrive at Taos Plaza with free time to wander the streets, enjoying the atmosphere and browsing at the offerings of many artists who have come here to capture the allure of this delightful place. As you return to Santa Fe, stop for a scenic view of the Rio Grande, a legendary river that cuts a distinct path through the history of the Southwest. Return to Santa Fe with the evening free to on own. (Breakfast)

Friday, September 12th - Santa Fe

Today you will have free time in Santa Fe to explore the many wonderful art galleries, shops and restaurants on your own. Your guide will be available to assist with suggestions on activities. This evening, join the group for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Saturday, September 13th - Journey Home
