Arrive in St. Michaels, MD to enjoy a self guided tour of the homes decorated for the holidays. The houses in town are within walking distance of each other, which gives you a great opportunity to stroll through town and soak up the historic atmosphere. Most of the homes were built in the 18th and 19th centuries and at one time had been the residences of watermen and seafarers. Many of these homes have since been restored, expanded, and adapted to today's lifestyle. The countryside homes are located just outside of town, often situated on expansive waterfront settings. These houses should not be missed, as they employ exquisite architectural details and are creatively set amidst the Eastern Shore landscape. You'll have time to explore the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum to see their collection of Chesapeake Bay artifacts, exhibitions, and vessels. Take time to check out the Classic Motor Museum. They are dedicated to appreciating, preserving and showcasing America's heritage of automotive innovation. Tonight, find a venue to view the Lighted Boat

Parade around the harbor. (weather permitting)
