Highlights

Visit the America on Wheels Museum, to learn about the history of automotive transportation in the United States. Experience the museums classic and antique motor vehicles carriages, gleaming muscle cars and vintage fire trucks. While at the museum enjoy a special private event: Cars, Corks and Chocolates. As you are surrounded by unique classic cars you will have an opportunity to sample wines from Franklin Hill Vineyard paired with delicious chocolates.

This evening arrive at the Pines Dinner Theatre for a Murder Mystery Dinner Show "Mission Improbable, Super Spy Edition"- It's the annual convention of the International Man of Mystery Society where every famous (and not so famous) detective comes to see and be seen. Not only will the room be crawling with men of mystery, but rumor also has it that the beautiful but elusive Princess Isabella, of Monaco will be in attendance as well. But when the Princess' jewels are stolen, and then turn up in the possession of a once very healthy, but now very dead thief, it's up to everyone in attendance to help determine who done it. This interactive comedy murder mystery will keep everyone in the audience on their toes, because everyone is a suspect in the murder.
