Sunday, July 21: Montreal City Tour, Notre Dame Basilica, Travel to Quebec City,

After breakfast, we'll meet our knowledgeable step-on guide where we'll explore Montreal, a city known for its French speaking culture. Discover the city's unique blend of old and new, and take in its stunning architecture and bustling atmosphere. Enjoy a tour of Notre Dame Basilica and visit Mount Royal Park, home to St. Joseph Oratory, one of the world's most visited centers of pilgrimage. Later, enjoy lunch on your own in Old Montreal (Vieux-Montreal), where the city's rich history comes to life through its charming cobblestone streets and diverse architectural styles. This afternoon head to Quebec City to check into the hotel with time to freshen up before a delightful dinner. Hotel: Hotel Manoir Victoria, Quebec, QC. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Monday, July 22: Beaufort Coast & Quebec City

After breakfast, embark with the local guide on a morning of exploration along the picturesque Saint Lawrence River. Visit the Albert Gilles Copper Museum, where for nearly a century, the Gilles family has been entranced by the "art of repousse". Admire the masterful interpretations of craftsman Albert Gilles, whose talent has been sought after by prestigious figures such as Pope Pius XII and Walt Disney. Next, make your way to the stunning Saint Anne de Beaufort Basilica the second oldest pilgrimage site in North America. Be amazed by the shrine's rich history as you marvel at its exquisite paintings, stained glass, mosaics, and wooden sculptures. View the majestic Montmorency Falls. This afternoon enjoy a lunch at the iconic Chateau Frontenac Hotel, a legendary landmark that has been a symbol of elegance and luxury since its construction in 1893. After lunch, embark on an unforgettable tour of Quebec City, where you'll marvel at the city's stunning architecture and learn about its fascinating history. From cannons and loopholes to the star-shaped Citadel, Artillery Park, and magnificent fortresses, this tour will take you on a journey through the city's evolution under both French and English regimes. As the day winds down, enjoy an evening of leisure in the charming Old City, and treat yourself to a delectable meal at one of the many exceptional restaurants. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Tuesday, July 23: Traditional Sugar Shack Luncheon & Canada's Capital
