Low booking deposit of: $300 per person

When the world falls silent beneath a blanket of snow, Yellowstone awakens in a way few ever witness. Steam rises from geysers like ghosts drifting through frozen air, bison plow ancient paths through drifts, and wolves leave stories etched in the snow. The crowds are gone, the wilderness is vast, and every moment feels like a secret shared only with those who step into the park's most magical season.

Sunday- February 21, 2027 - Mormon Tabernacle Choir & West Yellowstone

A once in a lifetime opportunity awaits this morning! Seating has been arranged for us at Temple Square, where ypu will have a chance to hear the world famous Tabernacle Choir's weekly broadcast performance (choir's schedule permitting). Then depart the Wasatch Mountains and drive north past the Great Salt Lake, Hill Air Force Base, and Utah's first settlement, Ogden. Soon you will enter Idaho and travel through the potato-producing fields of the Gem State. Continue north to the Island Park Region which is world-famous for its outstanding trout fishing on the Madison and Henry's Fork Rivers. After going over Targhee Pass you will enter Montana and the town of West Yellowstone, the western gate of our nation's first national park. Hotel: Kelly Inn, West Yellowstone (or similar) (Breakfast, Dinner)

Monday - February 22, 2027 - Yellowstone by Snowcoach

This is your day to discover Yellowstone National Park, America's oldest and most famous national park, via private chartered snowcoaches. The heated snowcoaches provide a clear view, moving easily across the snow while listening to the insights of an experienced Yellowstone guide. You will visit some of the landmarks for which Yellowstone is famous including Firehole Falls, Fountain Paint Pots and the world's most famous geyser, Old Faithful. Box lunches are included. In the afternoon, enjoy a return trip to West Yellowstone with additional photo stops along the way. Arrive in West Yellowstone with the evening free on your own. (Breakfast, Boxed Lunch)

Tuesday - February 23, 2027 - Jackson, Wyoming

Enjoy a beautiful winter day as you depart West Yellowstone and travel to the western town of Jackson, Wyoming, located at the base of the rugged Teton Mountains. After some free time for lunch on your own in town, enjoy a fantastic winter experience. Just a couple miles north of Jackson is the National Elk Refuge, winter home for thousands of these majestic animals. Get a close-up view as you take a horse drawn sleigh ride right into the massive heard on the Elk Refuge. Your sleigh driver and guide will explain how settling the Jackson Valley affected the elk herd's winter migration and why the refuge now plays an important role in their survival. After your unique experience, return to Jackson and check into your hotel. Enjoy the rest of the evening on your own. Explore the many shops, art galleries, and local restaurants in town. Hotel: The Rockwell Inn, Jackson (or similar) (Breakfast)

Wednesday- February 24, 2027 - Utah Olympic Park

Depart Jackson this morning and travel through western Wyoming surrounded by silver streams, soaring peaks, and lush meadows. Drive through the rugged Snake River Canyon, stopping in pastoral Starr Valley. Arrive in Evanston for lunch on your own, then travel to Utah Olympic Park near Park City. Enjoy a guided tour of this amazing facility that hosted events for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games and continues to host World Cup events. Many of the guides are winter Olympians in training. You will see the Utah Ski and Olympic Museum, three Nordic Jumps along with the Bobsled and Luge Track, which has some of the fastest ice on earth. Return to Salt Lake City for one final night. This evening join together for a farewell dinner to celebrate your winter adventure. Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn Downtown, Salt Lake City (or similar) (Breakfast, Dinner)
